

Washington Grantmakers' 15th Anniversary Conference will bring together grantmakers, nonprofit executives, the business community, industry experts, and government leaders to discuss key issues important to our members and to the progress of our region.

Conference Speakers

Geoffrey Canada is President & CEO of Harlem Children's Zone, a pioneering, non-profit, community-based organization that works to enhance the quality of life for children and families in some of New York City's most devastated neighborhoods. For his efforts and his agency's work, Mr. Canada was named one of "America's Best Leaders" by US News and World Report.

Joel L. Fleishman, JD, is professor of Law and Public Policy and Director of the Heyman Center on Ethics, Public Policy and Professions at the Terry Sanford Institute of Public Policy at Duke University. His book, The Foundation: A Great American Secret – How Private Money is Changing the World, was published in January 2007 to immediate critical praise, including the Economist's recommendation, "Any budding philanthropist who aspires to make a better world...should read Joel Fleishman's wise book"

Alice Rivlin, PhD, is a Visiting Professor at the Public Policy Institute of Georgetown University, a Senior Fellow in the Economic Studies program at the Brookings Institution and Director of the Brookings Institution's Greater Washington Research Program. Dr. Rivlin previously served as Vice Chair of the Federal Reserve Board, Director of the White House Office of Management and Budget, and founding Director of the Congressional Budget Office.

15th Anniversary Conference
An Event You Don't Want to Miss!

This year's annual event will be unlike any other! Culminating our 2007 Year of Engagement, this conference will be a celebratory, educational, and inspirational experience for Washington Grantmakers' membership, partners, and friends. The conference will highlight the impact Washington Grantmakers and its members have had in the region during the past 15 years and the essential role the sector will play in the region moving forward.

About Washington Grantmakers:

Washington Grantmakers is a membership association, a leader in the philanthropic sector, and a network of funders dedicated to improving the region by identifying community needs and making positive change through sustained action.
